

Tidewater Woodworkers Guild
Date March 23, 2009

The meeting was called to order on 3/23/09, at 7 pm by the president, Bret Lancaster.

After a short introduction, recognition of new faces, and a big welcome back to Martin Carter; he introduced the featured presenter.

Presenter Frank Pogue – Band Saw Boxes. Re-sawing 4” wide boards x 1/8” thick
Band saw boxes were displayed and digital pictures were displayed of the boxes.

Show and tell projects:

Bob Smith – displayed some band saw boxes he had made from scrap African Mahogany retrieved from a church pew.

Old Business- Jim Frances talked about upcoming programs and work shops.

New Business. - It was suggested that everyone get on line at Pilot Online and vote for the Wood Craft store as the best Specialty Retail Store.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 8:25 pm.

Submitted:

Adrian Marshall / Secretary